

For Immediate Release

Contact: Lorain Crowl,
Communications Coordinator
864.938.2713
lcrowl@thornwell.org

THORNWELL HOME FOR CHILDREN ADDS FOUR NEW BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEMBERS

Clinton, SC – May 8, 2008 – Mr. Paul D. deHolczer, Mrs. Katharine McNulty Hubbard, Dr. Terri McInnis and Mr. Mark Walters accepted appointments as Trustees, each serving a three-year term as board members for Thornwell Home for Children in Clinton, SC.

Paul deHolczer, Esq., is a member of Moses Koon & Brackett, PC, a Columbia firm with practice in eminent domain, general litigation, business organization, insurance defense, probate and estate planning. After attending law school, he served as law clerk to the Honorable Frank P. McGowan, Jr., SC Circuit Court, and as Assistant Chief Counsel, South Carolina Department of Transportation, Columbia, SC. He has been a frequent lecturer on eminent domain and condemnation. He is a former member of the Thornwell Home for Children Board of Visitors, as well and a Thornwell alumnus. Paul is a member of the SC Military History Club, and a graduate of Presbyterian College (B.A.) and the University of South Carolina (M.A., J.D.) His practice areas include litigation, condemnation and eminent domain law.

Katharine Hubbard is a native of Columbia and graduate of the University of South Carolina with a B.A. in Art History, Phi Beta Kappa, Magna Cum Laude. She has worked for the S.C. Department of Archives and History, and has served as the Assistant Director of the Preservations Society of Charleston. Katharine has served as the President of the Junior League of Columbia and as Chairman for the State Public Affairs Committee for the Junior Leagues of SC. She was a member of the Parent Task Force for the SC Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse and the Parent Involvement Task Force of the State of South Carolina's Education Oversight Committee. Currently, Katharine is a member of the Executive Council of the University of South Caroliniana Society as well as several other community organizations. She is married to William Coleman Hubbard and has three children. As she has done throughout her lifetime, Katharine continues to devote much of her time to volunteering and community service.

Dr. Terry McInnis is the Medical Director for Strategic Health Initiatives with GlaxoSmithKline. Dr. McInnis has presented nationally on the concepts of benefit design strategies and solutions to rising healthcare costs. She currently is on the Executive Committee of the Patient Centered Primary Care Collaborative and serves as Chair of the Center for Public Payer Implementation. Prior to joining GSK, she was an Associate Medical Director and Health Care Manager with GE and later the Corporate Medical Director for Michelin North America where she helped engineer the redesign of the healthcare benefits for nearly 50,000 beneficiaries. Dr. McInnis graduated from Erskine College with a BS (summa cum laude), and received her Doctor of Medicine degree from Wake Forest Medical School where she was named a NIH student clinical scholar. She completed a residency in Occupational Medicine as an OPSF scholar, and a MPH (high honors) at the University of Oklahoma. She is an active member of First United Methodist Church in Cary, NC. When she is not spending time with her “furry children” Buster and SuzyQ, she enjoys golf, fishing, reading, and flying.

Mark Walters, Esq., is Vice President & Wealth Management Consultant for U.S. Bank, Private Client Group in West Palm Beach, Florida. He earned a Bachelors of Science degree from Florida State University and received his law degree from Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Board Law Center in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. He is a member of the Florida Bar Association, the Realtor Association of the Palm Beaches, and the National Association of Realtors. He has served in many capacities with the Florida Department of Revenue, holding his last position as Senior Tax Specialist from 1992 to 2003. Mark is a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Boca Raton. He is an ordained elder, serves as Treasurer and is also on the Children’s Ministry Committee. In his spare time, Mark volunteers with Habitat for Humanity, Boy’s and Girl’s Town and the United Way organizations in his community.

The Board of Trustees for Thornwell Home for Children is a group of caring and generous men and women from all over the Synod of South Atlantic (a governing body of the Presbyterian Church, USA), serving the Southeastern states of Georgia, Florida and South Carolina. Each Trustee is elected by Thornwell’s Board of Trustees and each position is confirmed for a three-year term by the Synod.

Thornwell Home for Children is a ministry of the Presbyterian Church (USA), and a joyful Christian Community offering hope and wholeness to children and families.

For more information about Thornwell Home for Children, visit www.thornwell.org

####