

MARILYN CROMER

“Don’t Panic!”: Up-to-Date Information on Drug Trends with Teens

Marilyn Cromer is the Prevention Specialist at Gateway Counseling Center which is the Laurens County Alcohol and Drug Commission located in Clinton, SC. She received her Bachelor of Science from Lander University and Master’s in Social Work from the University of South Carolina-Columbia. Ms. Cromer has worked in the field of social work for 13 years in ranging populations such as mental health, HIV/AIDS, public health, at risk youth, healthcare, community organization/development, and currently in substance abuse.

She is a certified addictions counselor in treatment along with working in the field of prevention. She is the Chair of the Lauren County Prevention Coalition in which implements awareness, programs, interventions, and education throughout the Laurens County community based on the risks of substance use and to promote healthier lifestyles through prevention.