

RACHEL ROBERTS

Behavioral Support Strategies for Everyday Life with Young Children
Behavioral Support Strategies for Everyday Life with Teens

Rachel was born in Columbia, SC and has spent most of her professional career in Charleston, SC. She recently moved to Greenville, SC to rejoin Thornwell's ministry as a Family Specialist to serve families in need. Rachel earned a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from the College of Charleston and a Master's degree in Clinical Counseling from Webster University. She is licensed in the state of South Carolina as an LPC.

Her professional background includes working with at-risk families, children and adolescents with differing emotional and behavioral disorders in a variety of settings that include outpatient, in-home and residential psychiatric treatment facilities. Rachel brings specific work experience with children on the Autism Spectrum and has also previously utilized the Teaching Family model through her past work with Building Families. Rachel is thankful and feels blessed to rejoin Thornwell as a Family Specialist!