

REBECCA MOORE

Behavioral Support Strategies for Everyday Life with Young Children
Behavioral Support Strategies for Everyday Life with Teens

Rebecca is a social worker with a master's degree from the University of South Carolina. She has over 20 years of experience in the US and abroad primarily with adoptive and foster families. Rebecca works from an attachment based perspective. She has training in Theraplay, Dyadic Developmental Psychotherapy, and Trust Based Relational Intervention. Rebecca has also completed the University of Maryland National Adoption Competency Mental Health Training. She and her husband have eight children both birth and adopted, and have provided therapeutic foster care to twenty-five children.